WORKSHOP: GLOBAL ANTI-CORRUPTION ENFORCEMENT: PRACTICAL GUIDANCE ON HOW TO PROTECT YOUR COMPANY

Debevoise & Plimpton

Debevoise & Plimpton LLP is a premier law firm with market-leading practices and a global perspective. Our clients look to us to bring a distinctively high degree of quality, intensity and creativity to resolve legal challenges effectively and cost efficiently.

By any measure, Debevoise is among the leading law firms in the world. Nearly 85% of our partners are recognized by Chambers, The Legal 500 or IFLR1000.

Approximately 650 lawyers work in nine offices across three continents, within integrated global practices, serving clients around the world.

Debevoise in Asia

Debevoise first opened its doors in Asia more than 20 years ago. Today, the firm operates across the region from offices in Hong Kong, Shanghai and Tokyo. The team is led by a senior group of market-leading partners and international counsel, while many of the firm's U.S. and European partners also spend significant amounts of time in the region.

The firm is regarded as one of the strongest in the region for disputes, private equity and M&A advice. Its lawyers possess decades' worth of experience in Asia in these areas.

Debevoise's litigation and regulatory team in Asia is part of one of the world's strongest practices, advising clients on complex arbitrations, litigations, regulatory and anti-corruption matters, and working regularly alongside colleagues in Europe and the U.S. to provide the highest levels of representation in Asia. Mark Johnson is ranked by both Chambers and Legal 500 as a top-tier advisor in China and Hong Kong respectively, with Chambers Global stating that he "continues to be a leading name in commercial litigation and contentious regulatory work." Christopher K. Tahbaz is listed in Who's Who Legal for Commercial Arbitration in Hong Kong, and has been named a "Litigation Star" and a "Local Disputes Star (Hong Kong) – Arbitration" in Benchmark Asia-Pacific, which describes him as "highly recommended in the arbitration sphere."

Debevoise's Asian offices are home to the leading funds practice in Asia. The practice has a superior understanding of the sector, whether in established funds attracting international investors or highly specialized, first-time funds targeting a local investor base. The practice is led by two partners: Andrew M. Ostrognai, who was one of the first wave of international private equity lawyers in Asia, and Gavin Anderson, described by clients in Lawdragon Insights: Private Funds as "extremely bright, extremely responsive, very intelligent: he just gets it."

In M&A, the firm leads on some of the region's biggest-value and highest-impact matters, with a particular focus on advising national and international insurers and other financial institutions.
