Who we are

I wish to extend a warm welcome to Al Suwaidi & Company.
I am the founder and Managing partner.

Al Suwaidi & Company is a full service modern law firm, with a commercial approach. Since the firm started in 1997, I have recruited high calibre and experienced lawyers from international backgrounds. Today, the firm has lawyers from locations including the UAE, Middle East and UK. The team works closely together in a collegiate environment and continues to win praise from clients for impressive results. We punch above our weight, particularly in litigation and arbitration.

Our clients benefit from advice given by experienced lawyers who are accessible. We act for individuals, including 'high net worth', local and international companies of different sizes from startups, small independent entities to SMEs and corporate multinationals.

The firm is committed to providing bespoke and sensible legal advice. Our knowledge and expertise across the UAE is second to none and we have a formidable reputation in the Dubai Courts. This is consolidated by wider knowledge of international legal systems. The firm also boasts a number of qualified arbitrators and lawyers registered to practice in the DIFC Courts.

A fundamental part of the approach we adopt is appreciating not only the legal mechanisms governing different jurisdictions but also the important cultural and social differences. This will often help our clients progress their issues quickly.

We thrive on delivering the best possible results. We adapt to the constantly changing commercial and legal landscape but remain focused on our core principles, outlined below, underpinned by service delivery excellence.

1. Sharp focus on commercially driven solutions

2. Delivering pragmatic advice in a cost effective model

I take this opportunity to thank our existing clients for their loyalty - satisfaction is evident from the high number of repeat instructions we receive. I would also be delighted to welcome new clients. I am confident you would find us capable of meeting your expectations.

Best wishes
